VI. Group Discussion

1. End Semester Assessment – 100 Marks to be converted to 15 Marks.

Format for End Semester Assessment

Sr. No.	Parameter	Marks
1	Level of Participation	25
2	Knowledge of the Topic	15
3	Communication skill and Vocabulary	25
4	Critical Thinking	25
5	Overall Impression of Examiner	10
	TOTAL	100

Guidelines for assessment:

- a. Level of Participation: The student has enthusiastically demonstrated that the knowledge of the topic acquired from Theory, Tutorial, Laboratory, Project, Supplementary reading is reflected in the statements and arguments made during the Group Discussions. Has been an active orator and a passive listener at appropriate times during the course of the Group Discussion
- b. Knowledge of the Topic: The student is thorough in the content and concepts associated with the fundamental and applied aspects of the Topic. The participant contributed to clarify or synthesize other Group Discussion members' ideas. If disagreeing with other Group Discussion members' ideas, the student stated disagreement or objections consistent with the underlying technical concept clearly, yet politely.
- c. Communication skill and vocabulary: The student effectively and politely communicated with the peers and the Moderator faculty, articulating the thoughts using appropriate Academic and Technical words. The student avoided the use of mixed or non-English vocabulary
- d. Critical Thinking: The student is able to think clearly, and rationally and is able to logically connect various aspects of the topic being discussed. The student retained the ability to reason and stay focused, despite distractions, clutter and diversion experienced, if any, during the progress of the Group discussion. The student was able to think about the facts that emerged during the Group Discussion spontaneously. This ability is not the ability acquired by accumulation of facts and knowledge learned once in the past and used for ever.
- e. Overall impression of the moderator faculty: The moderator faculty would quantify their impression on the basis of parameters such as, but not limited to - Time management, response and respect to peers and moderator faculty, ethics followed, arguments and counter arguments losing the decorum of the activity etc.

VIII. Comprehensive Viva Voce

1. End Semester Assessment – 100 Marks to be converted to 20 Marks.

Guidelines for assessment:

- The CVV enables a dialectic communication between the examiner/s and the student, providing invaluable experience for career interviews in future.
- The Comprehensive Viva Voce is a summative assessment. It is based on verbal interaction between Examiner/s and the students, covering the entire course contents.
- The student may be encouraged to explain the applicable concepts, ideas, views with the help of pen and paper/ Whiteboard screen/ Paint etc. if required.
- A balanced set of questions invoking diverse abilities such as analysis, synthesis, application, comparison, correlation, summary, classification, explanation, illustration, description etc. be set up, while covering entire course contents.
- Sufficient time is to be given for every student during the Viva Voce, to demonstrate the requisite abilities before arriving at the summative assessment score.
